THE DESTINATION

The Whitsundays is an idyllic destination for your next business event. Nestled in the Heart of the Great Barrier Reef, this stunning region comprises 74 island wonders, including world-class resorts on Hamilton Island, Hayman Island, Daydream Island, and Long Island.

The mainland offers a diverse experience, from the vibrant coastal town of Airlie Beach with its lively dining and music scene to the quaint hinterland towns of Proserpine and Collinsville.

Airlie Beach serves as the gateway to the Great Barrier Reef and Whitsunday Islands, blending relaxed coastal charm with excellent dining and entertainment options. Proserpine, rich in historical art deco and country charm, is a haven for water sports and freshwater fishing at Lake Proserpine.

Bowen is famed for its secluded beaches, fresh local produce, including mangoes and winter vegetables and some of the country's best fringing reefs, perfect for snorkelling straight off the shore.

Venture inland to Collinsville, a charming outback town perfect for a day trip to explore its historic mining attractions, traditional hospitality, and the immersive Coalface Experience.

Getting here is convenient with two airports: Whitsunday Coast Airport (Proserpine) and Hamilton Island Airport, offering direct flights from Melbourne, Adelaide, Sydney, Brisbane, and Cairns.

The Whitsundays boasts over 6,000 accommodation options, from 3-star apartments to luxury resorts, with venues that cater to intimate workshops, large-scale conferences, and events hosting up to 1,000 attendees. Unique experiences such as island conference venues, dining on Langford Island sand bar or Whitehaven Beach, and team-building activities like hiking, kayaking, and Great Barrier Reef day trips make it a truly inspiring business destination.

With over 150 activities, from sailing and snorkelling to scenic flights and croc-spotting tours, The Whitsundays offers endless opportunities to create an unforgettable business event in the Heart of the Great Barrier Reef.

GETTING HERE

The Whitsundays is located along Queensland's central coast in north-eastern Australia, approximately 1,120 km north of Brisbane and 630 km south of Cairns. Getting to The Whitsundays is easy, whether driving from nearby towns or travelling from the other side of the world.

Road

The Bruce Highway is the major road linking Queensland's coastal cities and towns. The Bruce Highway runs through Proserpine and Bowen, with Airlie Beach located approximately 20 minutes drive off the highway.

Major national coach operators include The Whitsundays in their regular scheduled services into the coastal community of Airlie Beach from all major centres along the east coast of Australia.

Rail

Queensland Rail services include the Spirit of Queensland, linking Proserpine to all the major destinations from Cairns to Brisbane and beyond to Sydney and Melbourne.

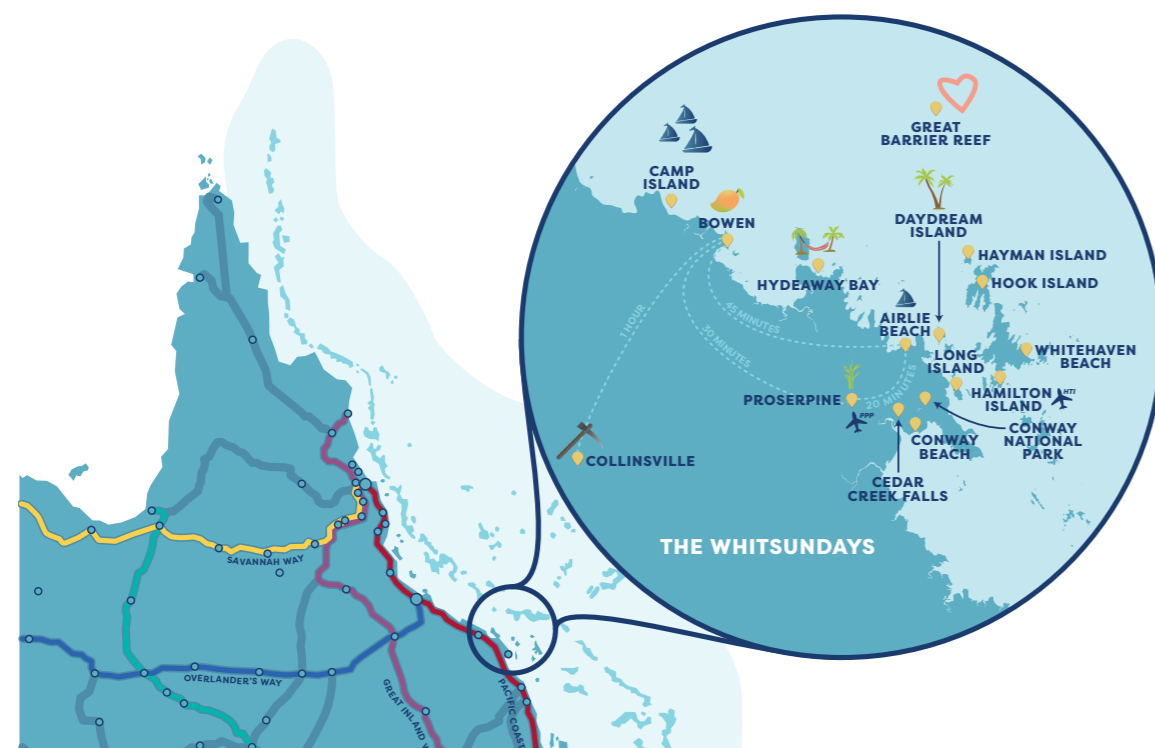

Air

The Whitsundays is home to two airports with flights from Melbourne, Adelaide, Sydney, Brisbane and Cairns. Brisbane, the capital city of Queensland, offers the best range of connecting flights into the region from other cities across Australia.

The Whitsunday Coast Airport, Proserpine (PPP) and Great Barrier Reef Airport, Hamilton Island (HTI) offer flights servicing The Whitsundays daily, with a range of transfer options to take you where you need to go.
